DAY WISE TENTATIVE ITINERARY

[Thursday] Day 1 : Paris → Nancy → Sarrebourg

Meeting Point: Paris 13th District – Place d'Italie at 08:30 AM

The journey begins in the morning as we board a tour coach and travel along the highway to Nancy, the "Duchy of Lorraine's Capital." This breathtaking city showcases a harmonious blend of Renaissance, Art Nouveau, and Art Deco styles. Lined with opulent mansions adorned with gilded details, its iconic baroque and rococo-style Arc de Triomphe is a remarkable sight. However, Nancy is world-famous for more than just its monuments—it boasts an entire 18th-century architectural ensemble that has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Yes, an entire architectural complex, not just a single building! We will stroll through the city, admire its landmarks, and then visit Nancy's indoor central market, a paradise for food lovers, where you can experience authentic French culinary delights and local flavors. Afterward, we continue our journey towards Germany, arriving at Sarrebourg for an overnight stay.

[Friday] Day 2 : Sarrebourg → Baden-Baden → Stuttgart

After breakfast, we cross the border into Germany and arrive at Baden-Baden, the country's oldest spa town. This charming destination feels like stepping back in time to old Europe, offering a leisurely atmosphere of the nobility. Baden-Baden's historic old town is home to its main attractions, restaurants, and shopping districts. Nearby, you'll find Germany's oldest classical luxury casino, the elegant mineral water spring gallery, an opera house, a concert hall, and a renowned spa center where visitors can experience world-class wellness treatments. In the afternoon, we continue to Stuttgart, a city where high-tech innovation and rich cultural heritage coexist in perfect balance. Our first stop in Stuttgart is the vibrant Königstraße (King's Street), the city's main shopping and cultural boulevard. On one side, you'll see Stuttgart's iconic landmarks: the State Theatre, the New Palace, and Palace Square. On the other side, you'll find Schiller Square and the Old Palace, where old and new architectural styles blend seamlessly. This lively area is always buzzing with visitors.
