DAY WISE TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival

- Welcome to Korea! You'll be transferred to your hotel and have some free time.
- In the afternoon, you'll receive information about the start of your tour.

Day 2: Seoul City Tour

- In the morning, we'll take a long guided tour—about seven hours—through this simply stunning city! Its vibrant energy and cutting-edge neighborhoods coexist with areas full of peace and tranquility. SEOUL
- Visit to the Aegibong Observatory in GIMPO, very close to the border with NORTH KOREA, from where it is possible to clearly see North Korean territory. Transfer to the Paju Demilitarized Zone (DMZ Imjingang), where lunch is included.

- We will see the National Memorial and Mangbaedan Altar, the Imjingak Pavilion Temple, a symbol of peace, and take a cable car ride (included) to observe from above the areas near the Military Demarcation Line. Finally, we will stop at the Freedom Bridge, a symbol of hope and reunion.
- Important Note: Please remember to bring your passport; it is mandatory. The DMZ is a military area and may be closed without prior notice. If this occurs, an alternative tour will be provided.
- Later, with our guide, we will go to the square where City Hall is located to see this building from the outside, notable for its wave-like (tsunami-shaped) design. Across from City Hall is Deoksugung Palace, which, when illuminated at night, allows us to appreciate the blend of tradition and modernity in this country. We will then walk to the Myeongdong district, the largest commercial and entertainment area in Korea; its name means “bright tunnel.
- Dinner is included at a local restaurant. Return by Seoul’s modern subway system (ticket included). Overnight stay.

Day 3: Seoul

- Today we include an extensive visit of approximately five hours in SEOUL. We will visit Changdeokgung Palace (entrance included), a UNESCO World Heritage Site, a complex of palaces set within a large park. Afterwards, we will stroll through Bukchon Hanok Village, a traditional historic neighborhood of small, well-preserved houses.
- We will then visit the War Memorial of Korea (entrance included), an impressive war museum that explains the conflicts experienced by Korea throughout its history, especially the Korean War, in which soldiers from many countries participated under the United Nations.
- Lunch is included at a local restaurant. We then continue to the Gangnam District, one of the city’s most vibrant areas, home to numerous shopping malls and entertainment venues.

- To conclude the day, we will stop at Lotte World Tower, an impressive 550-meter-tall building, where you will have free time to go up to the observation deck (admission not included) or to stroll through its park or luxury shopping centers.
- Return to the hotel and free time.

Day 4: Seoul – Suwon – Jeonju

- Today, we'll visit Gyeongbokgung Palace (entrance included), a stunning palace with over 600 years of history. We'll have the chance to witness the ceremonial changing of the guard if it takes place at that time. Afterward, we'll depart from Seoul and head south.
- Our first stop will be SUWON, the former capital of Korea, renowned for its impressive UNESCO World Heritage walls. We'll see these remarkable fortifications and visit Hwaseong Haenggung, the summer palace (entrance included). Lunch will be included. We'll then continue to JEONJU, where we'll discover its fascinating historic center (Hanok Village), with its little houses, traditional shops, and art galleries.

Day 5: Jeonju – Damyang – Haeinsa – Busan

- We'll depart toward the SUNCHANG GOCHUJANG VILLAGE, located at the base of Mount Amisan, with its hanok houses and courtyards filled with clay pots called hang-a-ri. This village is home to master artisans who craft gochujang (Korean chili paste) using traditional methods.
- We'll enjoy a hands-on experience learning how to make this famous sauce. Afterward, we'll continue to DAMYANG to visit the Juknokwon Bamboo Forest (entrance included), where the paths are considered some of the most beautiful in the country, perfect for meditation and enjoying the fresh breeze.
- We'll also find a variety of bamboo products, celebrated in places like the Bamboo Museum (entrance included). Lunch will be included, and we'll taste a local specialty: rice cooked and served inside a bamboo stalk. Surrounded by stunning mountain landscapes and forests, we'll arrive at HAEINSA, one of Korea's most important Buddhist temples (entrance included) and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Built in 802, it houses the Tripitaka, the most complete collection of Buddhist scriptures, carved on 80,000 wooden tablets.

- We'll then continue to BUSAN, Korea's second-largest city, known for its vibrant atmosphere, for accommodation.

Day 6: Busan

- In the morning, we will depart from BUSAN to visit Haedong Yonggung, a 14th-century Buddhist temple located by the sea. We return to Busan and visit the United Nations Memorial Cemetery (entrance included), where people from many different countries are laid to rest. We will then head to the country's largest fish market, located next to the port of Nampo. Lunch is included.
- We walk toward Yongdusan park, home to its impressive 120-meter pagoda. Afterwards, we depart for Songdo Beach, which features the country's first maritime cable car (entrance included, subject to weather conditions), offering stunning views of the bay.
- We continue to one of Busan's most picturesque neighborhoods, the Gamcheon Cultural Village, filled with brightly colored buildings, labyrinth-like alleyways, art galleries, pottery workshops, and charming cafés. Return to Busan. Overnight stay..

Day 7: Busan – Seokguram – Bulguksa – Gyeongju – Daegu

- We'll depart for the Seokguram Buddhist Grotto (entrance included), an 8th-century site nestled on the slopes of Tohamsan. Afterward, we'll visit the Bulguksa Temple (entrance included), considered one of the most beautiful temples in the country.
- Next, we'll arrive in GYEONGJU, the Korean capital that endured the longest in the nation's history, with a reign of 992 years under 56 kings. You'll have the chance to photograph the stunning wooden Woljeonggyo Bridge along the banks of the Namcheon River. Lunch will be included.
- We'll then head to Tumuli Park, home to the burial mounds of kings from the ancient Silla Kingdom, which are over 1,500 years old. We'll visit one of their tombs (entrance included) before walking to the Cheomsongdae Astronomical Observatory, the oldest in East Asia and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Our journey will continue with our arrival in Daegu, the fourth most populous city in Korea. Before heading to the hotel, we'll see Dongsan

Cheongna Hill, a historic area once home to Christian missionaries, and the commercial street of Dongseong-ro, the city's liveliest street, with its trendy shops, cafes, and restaurants and the Yangnyeongsi Museum of Traditional Medicine (entrance included), famous for its history of medicinal herbs in Eastern medicine.

- Overnight stay in DAEGU.

Day 8: Daegu - Andong - Hahoe - Seoul

- Departure northward and arrival in Andong, where we will visit the traditional village of Hahoe Village (admission included), a UNESCO World Heritage Site, located on the outskirts of the city. Free time to stroll through the streets of this rural village that seems frozen in time. We will also visit the outstanding World Mask Museum, which displays masks used for dances, medical practices, religious ceremonies, and theatrical performances. Lunch included at a local restaurant.
- We then depart to visit Byeongsan Seowon, a Confucian academy founded in the 16th century, set in an idyllic landscape beside a peaceful river. Arrival in Seoul in the mid-afternoon.
